DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Figures 1-6 are drawn to a tool having a straight edge parallel to undulations, a fingernail edge intersecting a straight edge, a rounded edge parallel to undulations disposed opposite the straight edge, a sinuous curvature disposed on a side of the member opposite the fingernail edge, and a sharp tip formed at the intersection of the straight edge and fingernail edge

Figures 7-8 are drawn to a tool having a straight edge on two opposite sides, each straight edge parallel to undulations, a fingernail edge intersecting each straight edge, the fingernail edge having a sinuous shape and curvature, a further edge having a sinuous curvature, and a sharp tip formed at the intersection of each straight edge and finger nail edge

Figures 9-10 are drawn to a tool having a straight edge on two opposite sides of the member, each straight edge parallel to undulations, a scraping edge intersecting each straight edge, the scraping edge having teeth and a sinuous curvature, and a further edge having a sinuous curvature on a side opposite of the scraping edge, wherein each straight edge has a lip formed by an undulation

Figures 11-12 are drawn to a tool having a straight edge having sinuous curvature on each of two opposite sides of the member, each straight edge disposed perpendicular to the undulations, a scrubbing edge on each of the two other opposite sides of the member, each scrubbing edge disposed parallel to the undulations

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Art Unit: 1744

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
